ANTICIPATORY SEARCH AND SEIZURE WARRANT

To: Any authorized law enforcement officer

An application by a federal law enforcement officer or an attorney for the government requests the search of the following person or property located in the Western District of New York (identify the person or describe the property to be searched and give its location):

The premises and real property located at 24 Rose Street, Geneva, New York 14456, as more particularly described in Attachment A.

I find that the affidavit(s), or any recorded testimony, establish probable cause to search and seize the person or property UPON OCCURRENCE OF THE FOLLOWING CONDITION(S) (state the condition(s) which must occur to establish probable cause):

The accepted delivery of the subject parcel to an individual at 24 Rose Street, Geneva, New York 14456 and either when law enforcement receives the transmitted signal indicating the package was opened, or within a reasonable time after the parcel enters the subject premises or is taken by someone who just left the subject premises.

I further find that upon the occurrence of the conditions specified above, such search will reveal (identify the person or describe the property to be seized):

See Attachment B for the items to be seized, all of which are fruits, evidence and instrumentalities related to attempted possession with intent to distribute controlled substances in violation of 21 USC 841 and 846. The subject parcel is a USPS International Parcel addressed to Emmy White at the Subject Premises, as more particularly described in Attachment C.

YOU ARE COMMANDED to execute this warrant on or before July 19, 2022 (not to exceed 14 days) in the daytime 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.  at any time in the day or night because good cause has been established.

IF THE CONDITION(S) DESCRIBED ABOVE HAVE NOT OCCURRED, THIS WARRANT MUST NOT BE EXECUTED.

Unless delayed notice is authorized below, you must give a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken to the person from whom, or from whose premises, the property was taken, or leave the copy and receipt at the place where the property was taken.

The officer executing this warrant, or an officer present during the execution of the warrant, must prepare an inventory as required by law and promptly return this warrant and inventory to Hon. Marian W. Payson (United States Magistrate Judge)

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3103a(b), I find that immediate notification may have an adverse result listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2705 (except for delay of trial), and authorize the officer executing this warrant to delay notice to the person who, or whose property, will be searched or seized (check the appropriate box) for        days (not to exceed 30)  until, the facts justifying, the later specific date of

ADDENDUM TO SEARCH WARRANT
SEARCH OF COMPUTERS

1. The computer or electronic media search authorized by this warrant shall be completed within 60 days from the date of the warrant unless, for good cause demonstrated, such date is extended by Order of this Court.
2. In conducting the search authorized by this warrant, the government shall make reasonable efforts to utilize computer search methodology to search only for files, documents or other electronically stored information which are identified in the warrant itself.
3. Should the government not locate any of the items specified in the warrant (or other fruits, contraband, instrumentalities, or property subject to forfeiture) within the authorized search period (including any extensions granted), the government shall return the computer or electronic media to the owner.
4. In any circumstance not covered by paragraph three (3) above, upon completion of the search, the government, upon request of the owner of the computer, shall promptly return to the owner of the computer copies of all files and documents requested and specified by the owner, excluding any items or files seized pursuant to the warrant or other fruits, contraband, instrumentalities or property subject to forfeiture.
5. If electronically stored data or documents have been identified by the government pursuant to this warrant, or other fruits, contraband, instrumentalities or property subject to forfeiture, the government may retain the original hard drive or other data storage mechanism pending further order of this Court. The retention of the original hard drive or other data storage mechanism does not relieve the government of its obligation to return to the owner of the computer files, documents or other electronically stored information identified in paragraph four (4) above.
6. Nothing in this warrant shall limit or prevent the government from retaining the computer or electronic media as fruits, contraband, or an instrumentality of a crime or commencing forfeiture proceedings against the computer and/or the data contained therein. Nothing in the warrant shall limit or prevent the owner of the computer or electronic media from (a) filing a motion with the Court pursuant to Rule 41(g) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure for the Return of Property or (b) making a request of the government to return certain specified files, data, Software or hardware.
7. Should there be a dispute or a question over ownership of any computer or any electronically stored data or documents stored therein, the government shall promptly notify this Court so that such dispute or question can be resolved.
